

MOU

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 23 September 2010 14:44 -

Memoranda of Understandings between companies are crucial in establishing the protocols for licenses and other agreements. In our experience, we find many companies proceed without them in areas where they matter most. We have the knowledge, skills, and experience to assist your company in finding its weak areas and threats in its agreements and turning them into company strengths and opportunities.